House Committee Chairman Advocates Measure for Great Development

Remarkable Growth of City Described in Showing Necessity of Act

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCE)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.-WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Los Angeles Greater Harbor held the enter of the stage at the open ng session of the Rivers and Har bors Congress at the New Willard Hotel today. Chairman Dempsey of the House Committee on River and Harbors was the chief adve ment for Los Angeles Harbor connection with the Long Bea development. Congressmen Lineberger and Fredericks were present and confirmed the figures presented by Chairman Dempsey, which he crystallized in saying that the growth of the Los Angeles Harbor had been phenomenal—leaping from 2,000,000 tons a month and that 2,000,000 tons a month and that 2,000,000 tons a month and that the municipalities there would match the government's expenditure dollar for dollar. Chairman Dempsey said that while petroleum had been the big item of export from Los Angeles the wond'rful and increasing growth of general business in Los Angeles justified the belief that general commerce in other commodities would replace the oil tonnage if at a later date it became smaller than under present conditions.

He said, however, he was serry Mr. Churchill had committed himself to the Balfour policy, because circumstances had greatly changed since the letter was written. It would have been better if Mr. Churchill had regarded the Balfour document as a dead letter and gone into the Psylin conference with free hands. Officials here contend that the rights of this government are fully protected under both the terms of the Dawes plans and the provisions of the treaty which we made with Germany after the war.

The present question relates to the claims that are now being adjudicated before the German-American claims commission and which cover not merely claims but awards for actual injuries to persons and property sustained and reduced to the actual damages proved. It is the opinion of officials here that the amount due the United States is so small in comparison with the huge amounts Germany has to pay that the payments of these claims under the Dawes plan will not prejudice in any way the claims of other countries.

JEALOUS OF JAPAN

"America long has been a friend of Japan'a," says the Asahi. "She is so still; but the friendship between the two nations today, is nothing compared to what it used to be in the past. When Japan wanted to get rid oft the irksome fetters of extra-territoriality, the United States rendered her every assistance. Soon after came the China and the Russian wars, and as Japan increased in strength and yower. American friendship for her began to die away. The rise of Japan seems to have become a source of animosity. Coupled with this came the China question, Japan being suspected of dire designs on China's sovereignty."

After declaring that Japan never means to question the right of a nation to fake in or reject emigrants and that fapan has never entertained any intention of infringing on China's independence, the Asahi invites the attention of Mr. Bancroft to the problems that have been growing bigger and bigger with the years.

"The problems are far from insoluble," the paper states, "and we believe that Mr. Bancroft, with his profound culture, his, fame as a great jurist and his undeviating sense of honor and fair play, is just the man to hit upon an amicable settlement. Japan will always meet him even more than halfway in order to clear the slate of these perplexing difficulties."

The words of Mr. Bancroft, on the immigration problem, in Chicago, on June 26 last, have been reproduced by all the papers, special pride of place being given to the following:

CENSOR OF CONGRESS
"When our Congress," a few

our peace societies can undo in grears."

The press enjoins on Mr. Banderoft the "noble task" of a revision of the Immigration Act or some measure akin to it, for "only this can remove the extremely polgnant grief the Japanese are suffering from, on account of that legislative enactment."

Speeches made by Mr. Bancroft have also received wide publication since his appointment to Japan was announced, especially his "Mission of America."

All the papers join in declaring that no better man could have been found to take the place of Cyrus E. Woods than Mr. Bancroft, and that the appointment is a proof of the friendship for Japan which still permeates the Amerisan people. Mr. Bancroft is urged to "graap every opportunity of rendering assistance, not merely in reconstructing material losses, but also in healing moral wounds, in a manner as virile, if not more virilely, than did his predecessor in office, Cyrus E. Woods."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Senator Shortridge today had a long over the relief of community property owners in California in the payment of inheritance and income taxes. Aity.-Gen. Stone assured the California Senator that the present head of the Department of Justice had studied carefully the opinion of former Atty.-Gen. He said that his opinion was communicated to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and that further action rested with him.

Senator Shortridge thereupon arranged for a conference with Secretary Mellon to urge immediate action by the Treasury and if no co-operation is forthcoming he proposes to ask the Senate for an investigation as to why the Treasury Department is apparently discriminating against the taxpayers of California.

Predict Tiger Flowers Next Middleweight Champ

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.-Tom Gibbons will be Jack Dempsey's next opponent and Tiger Flowers the next middleweight champion of the world-if he ever gets a chance at the title in a decision contest. These predictions are freely made today as a result of what happened Tuesday night in the ring at Madison Square Garden. Gibbons disposed of Kid Norfolk, the negro lightheavyweight champion, in masterly fashion in six rounds. Flowers beat rown Johnny Wilson, former world's middleweight champion, in sensational style in three rounds.

Tex Rickard stated after the fight that he had signed Gibbons for a meeting with Jack Dempsey and expected to promote the contest as the closing show in the garden or as one of the first outdoor season next summer.
On the strength of his victory over Norfolk, and the fact that he has gone fifteen rounds with Dempsey, Gibbons is apparently entitled to a return match with the heavyweight champion, even in neavyweight champion, even in preference to the various contenders. Norfolk has been given a wide berth by practically all of the light-heavyweight stars.

The bouts, which were in part for the Christmas fund benefit, are expected to realize a profit of more than $40,000, half of which will go to Tex Rickard and the promoters.

than $40,000, half of which will go to Tex Rickard and the promoters, and the other half to prove to the needy children and the well-paid boxers that there is a Santa Claus. The gross gate was $107,599.

The program of bouts attracted one of the greatest crowds ever gathered at the Garden. The fight fams stormed the place from all sides, despite the fact that the top price of admission was $15. Possibly Rickard will profit by the lesson. It was a plain indication that there is nothing the matter with boxing so long as the class of bouts offered are what the boxing fan has a right to expect from a fight center of the caliber of the Garden.

This feat gave Milton the track record for the second time since practice was started on the Culver City course and as the Culver City Speedway is the world's fastest course, a track record as world's record. Milton's record was considered quite remarkable because of the fact that his car did not carry a supercharger.

While Milton was still listening to the praises of the rail birds and receiving congratuations on the new record of 133.1 miles per hour, Bennett Hill started out to recapture his Jost laurels. The young Fordham University speed fellow smorted his Miltor Special around the mile-and-a-quarter board ovai in 33 2-5s., which is an average of 133.5 miles per hour.

COLUMBIA (Mo.) Dec. 10.—The University of Missouri football squad, profiting by fair and slightly warmer weather today, apseeded up their page in the preparation for the Christmas Day game with the University of Southern California this afternoon, but the work continued to be largely of a conditioning character with passing, kicking and running, which is expected to bring the men up to stop physical form, occupying most of the time. There was also a stiff signal drill serving the dual purpose of keeping plays fresh in the minds of the men and of hardening muscles. Some attention was given to defansive work for almost the first time since practice has been recsumed following the lay-off after Thanksgyving. Some dope on the U.S.C. offense has been recsived from a former Tiger player, who has seen the Trojans in action this season. The contract price is in excess of $1,006,000.

The ship, which, according to the advance notices, will be the "finest parsenger liner on the Pacific." will be $2$ feet long, with an $3-foot beam, and will be capable of accommodating $80 first-class passengers. Her speed of twenty-one knets will enable her to make the one-way trip in four and one-half days, as compared to the six-day trip now being made by the company's liners. Work will start at once, subject to the approval of the United States Shipping Board, but the liner will not be ready for her maiden trip before two years. She will be driven by sear steam engines.

The bid was the second lowest bid made by the Cramp yards, the first having board on the ground that the specifications did not provide gun emplacements and other features capable of converting the vessel for naval uses during war time.

So Long as the World Grows Boys and Girls

This will be the greatest of all Christmas gifts. It is, moreover, the one gift for all the family—the one which makes superfluous all others

Here is a prophecy that concerns Christmas-a Santa Claus Straw Vote, as it were:

Take any residence block in Los Angeles-no matter how rich or how poor-and ask at each door what is most wanted for

We prophesy that the answer, nine times out of ten would be-speaking for the family-AN AUTO-MOBILE.

And it wouldn't matter particularly whether that family already had one, or even two, cars at present. A new one would still be the thing most to be desired. This is true largely because a motor car is a symbol of the new generation's ideals. It gets resultsquickly!

It saves time and defeats boredom. From here to there-no matter where there may be-is accomplished in the minimum time with the smallest effort, and always with a thrill.

Furthermore, there is pride in the possession of an automobile that is immeasurable. It advertises the family welfare—or the lack of it.

And if you doubt this-you to whom automobiles are common-ask the family who is doing

It isn't enough that your family should have a new car for Christmas. It must be the kind of a car in which there can be pride of ownership.

And that is why the Stude-

Pride of ownership is built into Studebaker by the finest craftsmen in the automobile world.

This is particularly true of the 1925 line, which introduces a new era in automobiles, due to the advent of the Duplex Phaeton.

Studebaker Duplex Phaetons combine open car freedom and closed car comforts—at a price never before thought possible.

The Great Creative Force will make a new world. It will uplift business, government and society. It will create high standards and establish them in practice. It will set up ideals. It will establish unity of effort. Men will seek their own in the good of all. It will make business vastly more profitable, pleasurable and harmonious. It will increase confidence, hope, faith, fearlessness, kindness and love. It will stabilize business, discard its ups and downs and discontinue its cycles. It will increase brotherly love and make the activities of life a great joy. It will fill the hearts with gladness and the air with songs and laughter. It will reduce sorrow, crime and sin. Ignorance will flee before it. Poverty will go with the darkness. It will eliminate the waste of false systems. It will increase craftsmanship and ability. It will produce the maximum of results with a minimum of outlay. It will broaden our thinking, destroy our limitations-make us one in spirit and in action. It will build empires, quicken cities, develop resources, and harness potentialities. It is an all-conquering force which nothing can withstand. It harms no one. It blesses everyone. It is a steady light before which all darkness "shall flee away." It creates and establishes those things which are the ultimate goal of mankind. Its application is universal. It does away with time and space - reduces years to weeks and miles to nothing. In terms of progress it lengthens man's life by hundreds of years. It broadens his scope and enlarges his accomplishment.

The Great Creative Force is the "Light" shining steadily through Constructive Advertising to establish in human experience the things that should be.

Constructive Advertising is the orderly, systematic, scientific, positive and far-reaching method of establishing ideas, ideals, practices and results—not only in business, but in affairs of every kind. (See margins.)

Establishing Industry

Where is industry to be established?—in the minds of the people.

Build and establish the industrial thought in the public, then you can fanance industry. Build the idea of craftumanhip in the minds of the public, then you can man industry and turn out goods that will make industry

Build up information, intelligence, friendliness and romance about industry in a big constructive way and you will have a home

The great means for accomplishing them things is systematic constructive advertising in daily accompany.

Redeeming Business

Business should take control of itself.

Everything rules business but business. It stands in constant fear. It has no confidence in itself, but believes it is the sport of condition and circumstance. It believes little to be a ship tensed on the waves of actidant, caprice and chance—first in the trough and then on the creat of the wave. It ties its faith to cycles, ups and downs, and a so-called law of averages.

Business is the expressed activity of Infigite Good in supplying the needs of mankind. The greatest rule for business ever written is: "Suck ye first the kingdom of Good, and his rightnessesses; and all these things shall be added unto you." If all business is "the Feather's business" we shall "be about it" in peace, joy and thanksgiving.

Let us exchange a system of getting for an expression of giving of the best that is in each of us to the service of all of us—then business will be above necesserous.

Materialism is death to business as it is

The great means for bringing this change is constructive advertising in daily newspapers.

Above the Babel of Radio Name NEUTRODYNE stands clear and alone

ARE you one of the thousands who, won- Hazeltine entrusted his great idea to dering what radio set to buy, are caught in the confusion of radio names and claims?

Radio, the wonder of the age, has been revolutionary. It has passed through the experimental stages faster than any other industry. Out of this have come four main circuits or systems of radio reception. The first three of these were originally designed and perfected to receive and emphasize the staccato dot-and-dash of radio telegraphy.

Neutrodyne followed broadcasting In 1920, the broadcasting of music and speech as a free public service for entertainment in the home was begun. Immediately the electrical engineers sought to adapt the three existing systems to the

tute of Technology, saw the inherent difficulties in the existing circuits. He took the factors as represented by the new conditions and mathematically worked out an entirely new system of broadcast

With nothing but Professor Hazeltine's figures to work from, a receiving set was built, and marvelous to report, it worked perfectly the very first time it was tried. Distance, tone, ability to pick out any station anywhere, were right there in the first set built. It was a tremendous triumph for pure science.

The principles established by this first Neutrodyne are the identical ones embodied in every Neutrodyne set which has since been built.

BRAWLEY, Dec. 10.—Human benes found in a shallow grave on a raisch near here Sunday, were identified today as those of Barney Wood, aged rancher, who disappeared mysteriously in October, 1922. The identification was made by E. O. Helarich, a criminologist of Berkeley, who was brought here by Dist. Attly. Utley.

Wood met his death from a crushed skull, the criminologist stated. Robbery is believed to have been the motive as Wood was said to have carried large sums of meney or to have them secreted in his home.

With the bones, bits of shoes and clothing as the basis for identification. The criminologist reconstructed the skeleton and compared the measurements and characteristics with those of Wood. Constable William O'Brien and Policeman Paul H. Robinson, both of whom knew Wood intimately, identified bits of hair and the general character of the skeleton.

Wood was last seen on the night of October 8, 1922, when he left the city for his small ranch with a load of garbage. He had the contract for disposal of the city garbage.

contract for disposal of the cay garbage.

Three days after he was missed by neighbors, it was recalled at the inquest, two of Wood's dogs were observed prowling around near where the bones were found. They were believed by the criminologist, to have been instinctively searching for their master. The dogs were victous, it was said. This fact led the criminologist to the belief that the slayer was either known to both Wood and the dogs or was able to make friends with the dogs.

A prosperous year for California orange growers, owing to a good crop yield and high grade fruit together with better prices compared with last year, was indicated in reports received by the growers yesterday.

An average crop of navel oranges has been picked, the fruit was of high quality and the prices obtained were very satisfactory to the growers. The fact that the Florida growers held better control over their marketing, avoiding flower than a were well as the first phoduct during November and December as was the case last year, prevented the market with their phoduct during November and December as was the case last year, prevented the market becoming demoralized.

Although the orange crop in Southern California is not so large, in the number of oranges to the tree, compared with last year, the fruit this year is larger and will therefore total as many boxes to be shipped as were shipped last year. The quality of the fruit and the price will also make up for what the crop lacks in size.

Hat wireless reports of the ship's predicament because of a fire on board last Monday night were really exaggerated. In correcting the reports the Oaxaca sent a wireless the market was really exaggerated. In correcting really exaggerated and not beached, as earlier reports of the ship graded and not beached, as earlier reports of the ship caught fire the captain immersion really in the call for help or any exaggerated. "It is difficult to remember that the order which now boasts 1400 chapters in man different civilised countries, and 150,000 members, was made up of two chapters in May, 1920.

PASADENA. Dec. 10.—Plans for a new steam laboratory to be erected at the Salifornia Institute of Technology at a cost of approximately $90,000 are now being formulated, according to Arthur H. Citizens of San Diego voted last March to deed to the government the land required for the port improversents. The Navy Department desired to include the cost, 1,016,006, in the 1925 budget, but assurances have been received by navanal authorities here that the amount will be part of the budget for the following year.

Plans and apecifications for the Navy pier, sea wall and landing place were drawn by the District Public Works office some time ago and were approved by the Bureau of Yards and Docka. The pier will be of reinforced concrete, 1000 feet long, and will be south of, and parallel to, the Municipal Pier No. 1. Need for a private pier where the increasing supplies of naval stores could be handled with dispatch, has been felt for several years.

VALLEY POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS INCREASE

VAN NUYS, Dec. 10.—Postmaster E. D. Gibson today announced that to date here there has been a 21 per cent increase over the postal business of last year. For three years Van Nuys has been entitled to a free-delivery service, but the required mileage of sidewalks in the town is lacking, according to a set rule of the Postoffice Department As soon as the sidewalk program is completed here free delivery will begin.

"Big changes have taken place within the last eight years since my father was postmaster here," Postmaster Gibson said today. "Then there was just himself. He used to have time to lie back in a rocking chair and take a snooze. Work in the fast-growing Van Nuys office now keeps eight of us on the jump almost eighteen hours a day."

rather than low prices based on low costs of efficient and large-scale production.

"It is true," Chemical and Metaliurgical Engineering comments, that the margin of profits on sales by the more efficient concerns is higher because of mass production, higher concentrations in potassium chloride and greater byproduct possibilities, as for example, of bitter salts, glauber salts, magnesium chloride and bromine. After operating costs of the potash syndicate are deducted, the efficient producer is paid for his allotted orders on the same basis as the inflectent, but his production, of course, is limited. The larger groups would like to operate to capacity, reduce costs, cut prices and enley a free competition that would force the smaller, high-cost producer to close down. Representatives of the Wintershall Kall-werke group, which controls about 40 per cent of all German potash production, are reported to have said that, given free competition, they could supply the entire American market at prices at least 35 per cent below current prices."

Mississippi and Texas crops failed completely this fall. No change in conditions is expected until next year.

With coffee, the belief is entertained that brands recently selling for 52 cents a pound, and which now are costing 60 cents, will eventually attain the 70-cent level, 18 cents above normal prices.

On the other hand, local products which figure largely in candy and cake making are expected to decline because of the bountifuir rains this fall insuring plenty of cheap feed. Included in this division are eggs, milk and butter. Speculators in eggs will suffer severelosses, it is believed.

Chocolate, another important item, is maintaining a steady level with indications that the higher-priced kinds will drop if any change at all is registered.

Should tariff legislation new pending in Congress pass, high hepes are held for a considerable deline is sugar.

Of the sugar market the Industrial Diseast in its December issue has to report:

"Expectations of a large increase in the 1924-25 sugar crops everthose of the year just closing exercised a restraining influence on prices through October, while the strong stalistical position as regards current supplies blocked any downward movement.

Why We Offer Individual First Mortgages

Yielding 8%

I F we offered Individual First Mortgages which paid only 6% or 6½%, some investors would buy them because they believe that to be the established rate on sound first mortgages on real estate everywhere. But a good many investors would not buy them, because they know they are entitled to 8% on these investments in Southern California.

There is nothing to keep us from offering First Mortgages with the same security and the same amount of protection, but yielding only 6% to 6½%, except the fact that we give our investors the full benefit of the rate prevailing in Southern California.

If you are interested in 8% and SAPETY, we suggest that you call at our office and see for yourself how carefully and thoroughly we go into this matter of protecting the people who make their mortgage investments through us.

AUTO COACH PRICE CUTS ON HORIZON

Growing Closed Car Demand May Permit Cost Reduction of Vehicles

Reduction of Vehicles

PRICLERY DEPARTED

NEW YORK. Dec. 10.—Notwithstanding recent price reductions, there is little likelihood of daything resembling a "price war" among automobile manufacturers except, perhaps, on the coach models which have become so popular, according to Motor. The cuts made thus far have been by companies which have had a very heavy volume of sales throughout the year. While competition always enters into consideration to a certain extent in lowering retail lists, these concerns undoubtedly have been able to effect manufacturing economies which will offset, in part at least, the lower cost of the consumer.

There has not yet been a complete readjustment between the roles of closed and open models.
As production of open models declines, the costs rise and as output of closed models has increased, the costs have fallen. It is probable that in 1925 fully half the cars sold will be closed and it will not be surprising if the trend of prices on sedans, coupes and coaches is downward.

Numerous new coach models will be shown at the New York and Chicago shows, as well as some unexpected lines. All makers expect coaches to be an important part of their output next season and they will bring the cost to buyers as low as possible, but they are not going to manufacture at cost.

As the year comes to a close, it is apparent that the earnings position of companies in all branches of the industry as highly satisfactory. This is especially true in the case of tire makers. As a matter of fact, with the elimination of several weaklings, the industry as a whole never was stronger financially.

Recent Dry Raid

(EXCLUSIVE DIFFACE)

ANAHEIM, Dec. 10.—A bill for $2300, as Anaheim's share of the cost of the recent country-wide drive against liquor violators, has been presented to the City Trustees, but payment of the claim will be held up pending the settlement of the suit brought to prevent payment of a similar bill at Fulierton, according to a statement made today by Mayor E. H. Metcalf.

"The bill has been presented here, but I believe there is a disposition on the part of the City Trustees to await the outcome of the Fullerton suit." stated Mayor Metcalf this morning. "The same questions involved in the Fullerton case are involved in the Payment of the claim here, so I think action will be delayed until we see whether or not the claim can legally be paid.

"The bill presented to the Trustees here is itemized, but I do not believe that it is properly itemized, and it would be necessary to take this matter up before any payments are authorized."

West Harris McKean never did anything but pan gold. He was just about the last of the gold-crased '49ers; probably the very last of them that kept at their knitting to the very end.

CROSSES PLAINS

West was no nickname for West Harris McKean. He was Christened in those days when the West was newly famous as the land of heart's desire. He came from Missouri, like so many early California pioneers—Missouri, the mother of the West. He was a farm boy of Scottish parents and from them he inherited frugality and adherence to the church of his fathers, the Presbyterian.

The lad crossed the plains, most-ly on foot, in the year 1850. He arrived in Hangtown at the height of the gold-madness and in the years that followed he made small fortunes and then spent them trying to make larger ones. If all the police were as dignified and as courteous, every policeman would have a valu-able friend and co-operator in every decent citizen.

THE DIGNITY OF OFFICE In some foreign armies, exery officer is taught, as the first article of his creed, that when he puts on his uniform he is the personal representative of the King.

Every policeman ought to feel that he is the personal and visable representative of the dignity and power of a great city. That it is just as much beneath his dignity to "bawt out" offending citizens as it would be for him to use the flag of the country for a dish towel.

Policemen should be taught that sovereign cities punish offenders against their laws; but they don't squabble with them, nor discuss laws with them at street curbs, nor use bad English in enforcing the edicts of the municipality.

Policemen should be reminded that when their manners are undo if he were rich? Who hasn't built air castles and had day dreams of vast wealth?

Yet most of these day dreams are idle, inconsequential, and really not at all typical of what one really would do. If gifted with many shekels. But there is one young girl who has definite ideas on what she is going to do "when she gets rich." It is none other than La Bernicia, premiere danseuse, who is appearing at the Orpheum Theater this week.

"I'm going to have a quiet place, not too far from New York, with a great big yard and lots of animals." La Bernicia, whose off-stage name is Bernice Perris, declares.

"I mean nice animals, Like dogs, and horses, and sheep. I'm going to have a great Dane, and a Pomeranian; a thorough-bred horse, and at least one sheep. I like sheep, even if one did almost break up a show for me once. One time, one of them butted me all over the stage. Of course, he didn't know if he shouldn't do it, because I used to let him do it at home.

"But this animal was one of my very best friends for two years. He would really talk to me. Of course, he was very impolite, for whenever I told him anything, he would always say Bah-h-h' but it was all he could say. Finally, I had to give him away, so I left him with some friends down in a little town in West Virginia. And to this day, he wanders around the streets and if anybody calls him by his name, he'll, answer back, 'ba-a-a-a,' to all the natives there. "Oh yea, I forgot to tell you his name." she concluded. "It was pepita. Quite a lot of name for a sheep? Of course, but then, he was quite a sheep."
